Jaipur, in the state of Rajasthan in Northern India, is one of the most popular tourist destinations in India. It has a unique culture, atmosphere and lifestyle that makes it very interesting and worthwhile. This city is a real treasure for tourists. Jaipur is one of India's major tourist destinations. Millions of visitors travel to Jaipur each year, seeking to discover this stunning jewel hidden in the heart of the Thar Desert. Jaipur is a great place for backpackers and adventurers. Jaipur is also one of the fastest-developing destinations in India. This has led to a proliferation of modern hotel chains and travel agents offering cheap packages to the city. Many of these are now located on or near the Pink City's central walled zones. As well as backpackers and tourists, Jaipur is also a popular destination for business travellers. Many of India's largest companies are headquartered here. The city's eclectic architecture and streetscapes, particularly in its 15th-century and 18th-century portions, make for excellent photography. Jaipur is famous for its cultural diversity, with the city hosting many forms of art, including
